

Please do not make it mandatory for Indiana to make the telephone privacy act less effective. The law as written has made a substantial difference in my ability to live my life free of unwanted callers who use my paid for telephone service for their advertising. I applaud a federal law as long it allows states with more stringent requirements to keep them in place.

Thank you,

Paul Roby